

Book Reviewer

Motivational
Speaker

&

Musical Programs

Joyce Kahle

Joyce is a woman of many talents!

She has served as Vice President of large corporations. She created a local company which quickly grew to 15 offices across the State of Texas, with millions in sales.

She is an accomplished musician having sung and played professionally most of her life.

Joyce is a trainer, teacher, ordained minister of 25 years, Entrepreneur and world traveler.

BOOK REVIEWS:

Joyce is a skilled storyteller. She currently reviews a number of New York best sellers:

Suspense, romance, historical, autobiographical, international best selling authors including but not limited to:

Nora Roberts – “Three Fates”

Dan Brown – “The Da Vinci Code”

Linda Howard – “Mr. Perfect”

Gemma Alexander – “Heroic & Outrageous Women”

Julie Garwood – “Mercy”

Rose Tremain – “The Colour”, “Music and Silence”,

Deborah Moggach – “These Foolish Things”

Robert Ludlum – “Hades Factor”

Sandra Brown – “Envy”

Louise Raggio – “The TEXAS TORNADO”

James Patterson – “Big Bad Wolf”, “Suzanne’s Diary for Nicholas”, “Sam’s Letters to Jennifer”, “The Jester”

Jayne Ann Krentz – “Truth or Dare”

Musical Programs:

“A BROADWAY AFFAIR” – tells the history “in song” of the Broadway Musical Theater. Joyce likes to perform playing the piano and singing. Often other singers join her, offering you variety and enjoyment. If no piano is present, she provides a keyboard to use in your location.

“SING – A – LONG” – Looking for a nostalgic journey down memory lane? This is an ideal program! Joyce provides words to many, many old songs for the delight and enjoyment of participants. She performs frequently for Retirement Communities and other groups.

Book one of these programs for your next social event!

JOYCE KAHLE (Pronounced KALE)

Email: j.kahle@tx.rr.com

Phone: (972) 644-8198

Fax (972) 234-0101

web page maintained by copyright 2005 by pennyterk.com